Would you like to insert your brand in Spain?

Spain is different. This is not only a topic. It's real. If you are thinking of taking your brand there you should know that:

- Spain has a population of almost 50 million. It's a great market for your company.
- In 2010 Spain was the thirteenth country in the world in the scale of production.
- Spain has a cultural leadership over 450 million people who speak Spanish all over the world and is a worldwide reference thanks to artists, athletes, designers ...

Why I need Clipping Public Relationship?

Many companies fail in their sales planning when working with the Spanish market. They did not understand the idiosyncrasy of this country.

Calendar, holidays, traditions, festivals... culture, determine the best moment to make an advertising, a promotional campaign...

We know it, because we are Spanish.
